

Purim Evening: Maariv and Megillah Reading

Set-up (meet 40 minutes beforehand)

- Put table in middle, with microphone and megillah
- Siddur packets, kipot, groggers and megillot on table near door
- E-mail sign-up and tzedakah there also

Gabbai: Chag sameach and welcome to Hadar! (start by sunset)

We'll start with maariv, then we'll be reading the megillah - packets are by the door if you don't have a siddur or copy of the megillah. Please share!

Maariv davener: _____
slap amud right before amidah (for al haNissim)
after silent amidah, kaddish shaleim

Megillah reading (gabbai'im: _____) - see handout for customs

Gabbai: Megillat Esther can be found on page ?? in the siddur packets

[Announce extras on table.]

Please share them so everyone can follow along. It is a mitzvah to hear each and every word of the megillah, so I know you all want to make lots of noise when a certain someone's name is mentioned, but please let the reader say it before you start grogging. People should rise at this point.

Readers:

- 1 -- _____ says blessings, people sit, and then reads the first chapter
- 2 -- _____
- 3 -- _____
- 4 -- _____
- 5 -- _____
- 6 -- _____
- 7 -- _____
- 8 -- _____
- 9 -- _____
- 10 -- _____

After finishing the megillah, last reader recites the concluding berachah, and then leads Shoshanat Yaakov.

Gabbai: Maariv continues on page ?? in the siddur packets with veAtta Kadosh.

veAtta Kadosh

Kaddish Shaleim (without the titkabbal line)

Aleinu

Gabbai: Mourner's Kaddish

Gabbai: announcements